

Britain: Health and the People

Key Words

Part one: Medicine stands still

Supernatural explanation
Natural explanation
Hippocrates
Galen
Four Humours
Miasma
Medieval doctor
Medical training
Medieval hospital
Islamic medicine
Islamic surgery
Medieval surgery
Monastery
Black Death

Britain: Health and the People

Key Words

Part two: The beginnings of change

Renaissance
Challenge to authority
Anatomy
Physiology
Andreas Vesalius
Ambroise Paré
William Harvey
Opposition to change
Quackery
Plague
Surgeons
Physicians
John Hunter
Inoculation
Vaccination

Britain: Health and the People

Key Words

Part three: A revolution in medicine

Germ Theory
Louis Pasteur
Robert Koch
Microbe
Vaccination
Paul Ehrlich
Magic bullets
Anaesthetic
James Simpson
Chloroform
Antiseptic
Joseph Lister
Public Health Act (1848)

Britain: Health and the People

Key Words

Part four: Modern medicine

Pharmaceutical industry
Penicillin
Alexander Fleming
Florey and Chain
Antibiotics
Antibiotic resistance
Alternative treatments
Plastic surgery
Blood transfusion
X-rays
Transplant surgery
Keyhole surgery
Booth and Rowntree
Beveridge Report
Welfare State
NHS	